

The infrastructure of our nation is the backbone of our economy, and the Trucking Industry is the engine that provides for economic stimulus within our borders. I urge the DOT to seriously consider the Chicago to Kansas City Interstate plan. This project is sorely needed to provide a safe and efficient network of roads for our Midwest.